Instructors:

Mr. William T. Kaiser

Municipal Police Officers' Education & Training Commission (MPOETC)

Instructor Training

Mr. Kaiser has worked at length within the Mental Health and Criminal Justice systems. He is a former police officer and detective in a police department located in the Pittsburgh area. During that time he functioned as a police peer in the Pittsburgh Critical Incident Stress Debriefing Team. After leaving the police department, Mr. Kaiser was hired as a police training specialist with the PA State Police / Municipal Police Officers' Education & Training Commission where he has developed a variety of in-service training programs for municipal police officers.

Dr. Donald F. Kline, PhD, Director

Montgomery County Emergency Services, Inc. (MCES)

Criminal Justice Department

Dr. Kline has worked extensively as a liaison for both law enforcement and the Criminal Justice System in troubleshooting system problems between MH/MR, D&A, and the Criminal Justice System. His work also requires extensive knowledge in Community Outreach, Assessment, Follow-up, Consumer Advocacy, and Forensic Diversion (diverting MH consumers from the legal system & ensuring they receive services). He is a nationally recognized trainer and is a Certified Municipal Police Instructor, Trained Crisis Negotiator (FBI basic and Advanced Topics), and is schooled in Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (ICISF Certified).
